From the President...

These have been trying times for all of us. I miss seeing everyone at the services in the Synagogue. I wish to thank Jerry Pressman for taking my place at the virtual services as it is more efficient and prudent. Let us all pray for an end to this horrible pandemic.

The virtual High Holy Days services were very successful thanks to those who participated. Also thank you to the congregants who contributed to the New Year's greetings and the security upgrades to the building.

We would like to send out a warm Sephardic welcome to new members: Hilary Tirck and Richard Guidice, and Cara Polonsky. It is wonderful to see the next generation of our current members supporting our Shul.

Your comments in the Newsletter are always valued and appreciated. We appreciate the input from everyone. Stay safe and be well.

Elliot Hershoff, President

THANK YOU TO ALL THE MEMBERS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO MAKING OUR HIGH HOLIDAY SERVICES SO MEANINGFUL:

To Jerry Pressman for the hours of work involved in the creation of the power point presentations which enabled us to view the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur prayer books. Thank you, also, for assisting Elliot Hershoff in leading our services.

To Steven Pressman for handling the display of our prayer books during the High Holiday services.

To Joanne Pressman and Rabbi Howard Kosovske for their work to condense the length of the service to fit the Zoom format, while keeping all of the traditional Sephardic melodies as well as the required Hebrew prayers.

To our High Holiday volunteer readers: Millie Becker, Tobie Podradchik, Betty Polonsky, and Wendy Tirck.

To David Podradchik for enabling us to view his personal Torah and for his eloquent chanting of the Torah portions and his insightful sermons.

To Jay Polonsky for continuing to amaze us with his masterful and inspiring sounding of the Shofar.

To Elliot Hershoff who has capably lead our services for many years.

To every member who participated in each Zoom service allowing us to have a minyan and to start right on time. Your support was a mitzvah and a gift to the entire CTI family.

CONGRATULATIONS:

To members Aaron and Kathleen Thompson on their recent marriage. Aaron is the son of Ronda Middleton, and the grandson of Doris and Elliot Hershoff.

To Joanne Pressman who was nominated by Charlotte Savage as the CTI Congregation Hero. Joanne will be honored by the Synagogue Council of Mass. at its Zoom Gala on Thursday, December 3, recognizing the important work being done at their individual synagogues by each honoree during the pandemic.
