Sephardic

VOLUME 55 NO. 2 MARCH, 2025

The staff of the Newsletter wishes everyone a happy Purim which is celebrated on the 14th of Adar, Friday, March 14. The story of Purim is told in the Megillah, the Book of Esther, which is read in its entirety on the eve of Purim, Thursday, March 13.

We also wish everyone a joyous and healthy Passover which begins with the first Seder on Saturday, April 12. On Passover, we gather in our homes with our family and friends to commemorate our voyage from slavery to freedom. This is an annual reminder of how vital our traditions and rituals are to keeping Judaism alive and an important part of our heritage and our future.

Passover is also a sure sign of spring and with that comes the renewal of our worshipping together in person for our Friday night Shabbat Services. Please mark your calendar for our return on April 4, and plan to join us in the synagogue for prayers followed by the return of our Oneg Shabbat.

From the President...

We are fast approaching spring and warmer weather, and the days are getting longer. We can start spending more time outside doing the things that we like to do such as working in our gardens or what we hate to do like scraping and painting the house. We are free to do these things as long as we are healthy. Not everyone is that lucky.

Over the centuries our people have endured many bad times as well as good. As always things come full circle, as Israel and the Jewish people are currently going through some of its darker times. Peace in the region keeps getting closer only to be snatched away. At times it seems like peace will never be possible in the region, but we have to keep faith that it will happen.

We hope you all enjoy the upcoming holidays of Purim and Passover with the traditional foods of our heritage. For Purim, we read the story of Esther and enjoy hamentaschen. At Passover the seder reminds us of how we as a people managed to break our bondage and leave Egypt to wander in the desert looking for the Promised Land.

Shalom,
Jerry Pressman, President
