From the Presidents...

Spring is here and we are now conducting our monthly Shabbat service back in the synagogue. It was great to see everyone at our April service. We had 15 people in attendance as well as members who joined us on zoom.

Everyone stayed after the service to enjoy the Oneg sponsored by Diane and Harvey Elefson, mingle and catch up after the long winter. We also had a congregation meeting on Sunday April 26th along with our elections to determine who was going to run CTI for the next 2 years. Congratulations to all who were elected and I am looking forward to working with you to make our Synagogue better.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Jay Polonsky for his 16 years of service as the treasurer plus many years prior to that as our financial secretary.

We had a Bar Mitzvah service for Benjamin Polonsky on April 20th. He did an excellent job and made his parents, Renee and Josh Polonsky, and his grandparents, Betty and Jay Polonsky, very proud. His hard work and Betty's tutoring came through as he read his Torah portion and the prayers.

Shalom,
Jerry Pressman, President

Hello Ladies!

I hope everyone had a good Passover. Elections were held at our recent Ladies Auxiliary meeting. At that time, Doris Hershoff expressed her desire to retire as Secretary, and Diane Elefson was nominated and elected as our new Secretary. Thank you, Doris for a job well done! Diane, welcome aboard! Since no one was even remotely interested in running for any of the other positions, the President, Fran Arsenault-Shaheen, the Vice President, Wendy Tirck, and the Treasurer, Mildred Becker, remained in their current positions.

The meeting was well attended and I thank everyone for their support. Our annual luncheon will be held on August 2nd. More details to follow in the next issue of the Newsletter.

THANK YOU

To David Podradchik for his assistance in clearing snow from the stairs and sidewalk of the synagogue. We apologize for the omission in the last Newsletter.

To Betty Polonsky who stepped in so admirably and without much notice to cover for Joanne Pressman in chanting the April service as well as acting as Secretary and taking the minutes at the Congregation meeting.

To Diane and Harvey Elefson for sponsoring our April Oneg Shabbat.

CONGRATULATIONS & MAZEL TOV

To Benjamin Polonsky, son of Renee and Josh Polonsky and grandson of Betty and Jay Polonsky who celebrated his Bar Mitzvah at CTI, just as his sister Ava and cousin Jayden did over the last few years. It is especially noteworthy that Betty took on the task to teach all her grandchildren the prayers and readings to reach this milestone. CTI is pleased to see the continuation of family participation passed from generation to generation!
