From the Presidents...

Our High Holidays may sound and look a bit different this year as we welcome Rabbi Phillip Blue to our shul and allow Joanne a respite from 35 years of leading the services.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are both joyful and solemn, and we ask that basic rules of etiquette be observed. If the services have already started when entering the sanctuary, please be as quiet as possible so you won't create a distraction for those already there. As a courtesy to our officiates, please refrain from conversations with your friends and relatives until the services have concluded for the day. If you are scheduled for an Aliyah, plan to be there before the Torah service starts which is usually around 10:15, and we ask all Congregants to please stay until the service is over.

The officers and directors of CTI as well as the Newsletter staff wish you all L'Shanah Tovah and may you be inscribed in the Book of Life for health and prosperity.

Shalom
Jerry Pressman, President

Hello Ladies,

I hope everyone enjoyed the summer. Our Ladies Auxiliary had a great turnout for its annual luncheon on August 2nd. It was wonderful to be able to socialize with everyone in person.

Congratulations to Adele Shackelford for being the first member of our Ladies Auxiliary to turn 100. Adele, you are such an inspiration to all of us! Wishing everyone a Happy, Healthy New Year!

Fran Arsenault-Shaheen
President, Ladies Auxiliary

HIGH HOLIDAY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Congregation Tifereth Israel would like to encourage everyone to attend High Holiday services in person in the synagogue this year. Daytime services will begin at 9:30. Please bring your own yarmulke and tallis. We will be offering a Zoom* option (with the prayer book being displayed on screen) for all services, with Zoom viewers muted at all times.

Please respond to the High Holiday mailing you received to accept your Aliyah, make your annual pledge, or bid on an honor. If you would like to make a Haftorah donation in memory or in honor of someone, but do not wish to read on the bimah, Betty Polonsky has graciously offered to be a designated reader.

A Peabody police officer has been requested to provide security for all services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Please Note: The link and password will be sent by email, but will not be published in any print media due to security considerations, so please be sure we have a valid email address on file.
