From the President...

L'SHANAH TOVA TO ALL OUR CONGREGANTS, FAMILIES, AND LOVED ONES. In this coming New Year may G-D rid us of this devastating pandemic and keep us all safe and in good health. May all our prayers be answered.

Unfortunately we will not be able to conduct our services at the synagogue this year. They will be conducted virtually on Zoom and by phone. Please don't let this hinder your participation as the services will still be meaningful.

By now everyone should have received a request for donations for the overhaul of our synagogue. As noted we cannot do this with just the dues. Any amount will be greatly appreciated and you also will be performing a mitzvah.

My wish is for world peace and tolerance for one another. Keep safe!

Elliot Hershoff,
President

TO MEMBERS OF CONGREGATION TIFERETH ISRAEL:

This year, our High Holy Day services will be unlike any that have taken place in our 98-year history. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the difficult decision was made to hold both Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services virtually. The officers and board of Congregation Tifereth Israel have determined that it just would not be safe to have our normal, in-person gatherings in our sanctuary. It was a choice that was not made lightly, and we took into consideration the Massachusetts restrictions on large groups, as well as the age and health status of so many of our members. We also reviewed the answers and comments many of you made when responding to our survey earlier this summer.

While a "virtual" service is our only viable option at this time, our religious leaders are working to make the holiday as meaningful as we possibly can, under the circumstances. As a member of CTI, you are asked to do your part in contributing to this goal in every way possible. Members are asked to sign in to the Zoom* session on time, to wear your yarmulkes and tallit, and to keep your devices muted unless you are asked to lead a responsive reading. Try to treat the "virtual" service with the same respect you would show if you were physically present in the sanctuary.

Although we have attempted to condense some parts of the service, we will have most of our Hebrew and English prayers, many traditional Sephardic melodies, a Torah service, and a meaningful sermon. The normal Aliyah honors have been assigned and letters have been sent to indicate which day your deceased family member's names will be read during the Hashcabah. The prayerbook will be displayed in split-screen format to allow you to daven along with the religious leaders, and we encourage your participation.

We pray that this extremely unusual situation will be a one-time occurrence and that, G-d willing, we will soon be together in our sanctuary where we will raise our voices together in prayer.

Joanne Pressman
Cantorial Soloist / Secretary

Note: The link and password will be sent by email, but will not be published in any print media due to security considerations, so please be sure we have a valid email address on file.

We will be unable to add additional get well names during the services because all congregants will be muted, but if you email us in advance, the names will be announced.

THANK YOU

To Marvin Menovich and Jerry Pressman for their assistance in getting internet access installed at our synagogue.

To Jay Polonsky for creating the electronic version of our Shabbat prayers for use in our Friday night services.

To Rabbi Howard Kosovske for his assistance in planning our holiday services to conform to the Zoom format.

To Jerry Pressman and Steven Pressman for their technical expertise that will enable us to display the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur prayer books during the Zoom sessions.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are looking for volunteers to lead the responsive readings during Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. If you would like to participate as a reader, please contact Joanne Pressman (978-979-0214) or email holidayhonors@ctipeabody.org.

Please respond to the High Holiday mailing you received to accept your Aliyah or make your annual pledge.

If you need to send an expression of sympathy or would like to honor a Simcha or a happy occasion, please contact Wendy Tirck (978)750-4063 or by email, wtirck@icloud.com. She will send a CTI card for a $5.00 donation to the Happy Day Fund.
