Congregation Tifereth Israel
Sephardic

VOLUME 53 NO. 1 JANUARY, 2023

Tu B'Shevat, the 15th day of the Jewish month of Shevat, is a holiday also known as the New Year for Trees, which falls this year on February 6. One custom is to eat fruits of the land of Israel. It is also a day to celebrate the environment and G-d's beautiful natural world.

Purim is observed on Monday evening, March 6th and Tuesday March 7 (Adar 14) with the reading of the Megillah, the Book of Esther, which recounts the story of Queen Esther and how she saved the Jewish people from annihilation. Purim is so-called because the villain of the story, Haman, cast the pur (meaning "lot") against the Jews yet failed to destroy them. Whenever Haman's name is mentioned in the Megillah, young and old use their graggers to drown out the name of the story's villain.

From the Presidents...

Now that Thanksgiving and Chanukah have come and gone it is time to think about our New Year's resolutions. Why not make one to attend all of our Friday Shabbat services this winter. It is really an easy resolution to keep as all services will be on Zoom and it only takes about an hour once a month. Also you won't have to go out in the dark or bad weather.

I was talking with Jay Polonsky the other day and we got into a discussion about some of the things that we used to do BC or if you prefer before Covid. The most important of those was bringing non perishable food to the Friday services to be dropped off at the food pantry. With inflation and cold weather that need is greater now than ever. Jay and I would like to setup a day a month for you to stop by CTI and drop off these much needed items. We will be starting this in January and let everyone know the date by email as soon as it is confirmed.

Shalom,
Jerry Pressman, President

Wishing everyone a happy, healthy 2023! Spring meeting details will be announced in the next Newsletter. Don't forget the Happy Day Fund when you want to send a card for a simcha or any special event. Contact Wendy Tirck, 978-750-4063 or wtirck@icloud.com.
