The staff of the Newsletter wishes everyone a Happy Shavuot which begins on Thursday evening, May 25. "Shavuot" means "weeks," in recognition of the weeks of preparation and anticipation leading up to the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai, seven weeks after Passover.

Many Jews eat only dairy foods during Shavuot to remind us of the acceptance of the Torah and the start of the laws of Kashruth (Jewish dietary laws). The Bible also associates Shavuot with the harvest of wheat and fruits, and marks the bringing of the first fruits to the Holy Temple as an expression of thanksgiving.

From the President...

Now that Passover has ended and we will be celebrating Shavuot , we will be counting the Omer. We did just that at our last Shabbat service this past Friday in the synagogue. This was our first in-person service for the year. While it was nice to be able to continue having services during the winter months through the modern technology of Zoom, it was wonderful to be able to do it in the synagogue with many members and visitors who were able to enjoy a wonderful Oneg after the service that was sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary. We also had the opportunity to enjoy each other's company and catch up. The officers and board of CTI would like to encourage everyone who is capable to join us in person at our future Shabbat services although we will still be using Zoom for those who cannot be there.

The activities committee is planning some upcoming events that you won't want to miss. We all know what Betty and Jay have done in the past. See details in this Newsletter and your email for what they are planning next. I am sure you won't be disappointed.

Shalom,
Jerry Pressman, President

From the Ladies Auxiliary President...

Hello Ladies,

Thank you to everyone who helped put together the wonderful Friday Night Oneg on April 21st welcoming the Congregation back to "in person" services at the synagogue, especially to Joanne Pressman and Wendy Tirck who did the shopping for the delicious collation that we enjoyed. All the ladies pitched in to help with both the set up and clean up, and it was very much appreciated!

At our last meeting, we decided to go to Sylvan Street Grille on August 20th for our annual luncheon. I will be calling everyone with more information the first part of August.

I hope everyone has a wonderful summer. Anyone interested in joining the Ladies Auxiliary should contact us through the synagogue's email: info@ctipeabody.org

Fran Arsenault-Shaheen,
