Congregation Tifereth Israel
Sephardic

VOLUME 54 NO. 1 JANUARY, 2024

Tu B'Shvat is a Jewish holiday occurring on the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat, Thursday, January 25th. It is also called "Rosh HaShanah La'Ilanot", literally "New Year of the Trees." In contemporary Israel, the day is celebrated as an ecological awareness day, and trees are planted in celebration. It is often celebrated by planting trees, eating fruits, and honoring our connection to and dependence on the world around us.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT:

In April, we will be holding elections for officers and board members to lead Congregation Tifereth Israel for the next two years. Jay Polonsky and Joanne Pressman are co-chairs of the nominating committee and would like your input. If you would like to be a part of the executive board, please submit your name to: info@ctipeabody.org, no later than January 10, 2024.

CANDLE LIGHTING TIMES FOR SHABBAT:

January 5	4:06	February 2	4:40
January 12	4:13	February 9	4:49
January 19	4:22	February 16	4:58
January 26	4:30	February 23	5:07

From the Presidents...

It is that time again when we all make and break New Year's resolutions. It doesn't matter what our intent was when we made them. We just can't seem to keep them very long or at all. This year we should try harder to make them last longer than the Rose Parade.

A great resolution, if you need an idea, would be to attend the Congregation Tifereth Israel monthly Shabbat service. It only takes about an hour, and at least for the winter months, you can stay home in comfort by joining us on zoom. We usually stay on after the service so that we can chat with each other and keep the spirit of community alive. I look forward to seeing you all on zoom.

Shalom,
Jerry Pressman, President

Wishing everyone a happy, healthy, new year. Let's all pray for WORLD PEACE in 2024!

A reminder for those of you who have signed up for the upcoming brunch with Temple Emmanuel's Sisterhood on Sunday, January 14th, we will be meeting at our synagogue that morning at 9:20 and we will be carpooling from there. Thank you to Diane Elefson, Lorna Goldberg, and Joanne Pressman who made the Sephardic dishes we prepared to take with us to the brunch. It was a fun cooking experience, which reminded Joanne and me of the times our mothers would get together when trying out new Sephardic recipes.

Spring meeting details will be announced in the next Newsletter. Anyone interested in joining the Ladies Auxiliary can contact us by email at ladies-auxiliary@ctipeabody.org.

Fran Arsenault-Shaheen,
President Ladies Auxiliary

CONGRATULATIONS & MAZEL TOV

To Millie Becker, whose donation of a quilt made in 2003 by her and her daughter, Sheryl, was recently accepted into the permanent collection of the “Storybook Quilts” at the Wenham Museum. The collection previously traveled to schools throughout the North Shore. It was inspired by the children’s book "Quilt Counting" by Lesa Cline-Ransome. Irregularly sized blocks feature farm scenes, plants and animals. What made this quilt so unique is that Sheryl’s idea was to include all the items needed to make a quilt, sewn in to the quilt top in the various baskets. Included are scissors, tape measure, several spools of thread on a ribbon, a pin cushion and scraps of fabric.

To Adam Podradchik, who became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Judea in Palm Beach Gardens, FL, in November 2023. Adam is the son of CTI members Stacey and Scott Podradchik, and grandson of Tobie Podradchik and the late Bill Podradchik.

To Joseph Thibault, grandson of Nancy and Bob Duerr, who was awarded the Harrington Scholar & Athlete Award at the P.H.S. Football banquet.

THANK YOU

To Diane and Harvey Elefson who sponsored our November Oneg Shabbat.

To Lewis Freedman who generously donated an additional speaker to enhance the sound system in the social hall when the holiday services are being held in the sanctuary.

To all the CTI members who contributed to the successful Thanksgiving food drive, enabling us to make a significant donation to the Haven from Hunger in Peabody.

To Jan Menovich who created the new letterhead for the Ladies Auxiliary of CTI and to Jerry Pressman who has provided the Ladies Auxiliary with an email address of their own to enable us to send out messages directly to Auxiliary members.

To everyone who participated in the lively discussion during our November Shabbat service when we were visited by members of Temple Emanuel of Marblehead. Our guests were extremely gracious and brought a very delicious challah bread.
